Tag: Island View Casino Resort presents $50,000 donation to Feed My Sheep

June 9, 2009 – Gulfport, MS -- Since the opening of their new facility in January, Feed My Sheep has served over 25,000 meals to the homeless and homebound individuals in the Gulfport area. Their success is, in large part, due to the overwhelming support from businesses and individuals in the Gulfport community. Island View Casino Resort is a great example of this support.

On Tuesday, June 9, 2009, Rick Carter, co-owner of Island View Casino Resort, presented a $50,000 check to show their continued support of Feed My Sheep's mission. During the presentation of the check, Rick Carter said, "Island View has always been a supporter of Feed My Sheep and their presence in our community. We are excited to be a partner with this organization and admire the work they do in feeding the hungry on the Mississippi Gulf Coast."

Ted Riemann, chairman of the board of Feed My Sheep, stated, "As we celebrate our 25th anniversary, we are so fortunate to have companies like Island View standing beside us. Feed My Sheep wouldn't be where it is today without the tremendous support and outreach from our community. The donation we received today will assist us in our daily operations, making an important impact on the community for years to come."

Feed My Sheep is expanding their outreach to churches in the community through their Meals On Wheels program. The program gives churches the opportunity to get involved and reach out to homebound individuals in the surrounding areas.
